Not Many Store-Sales Are Uninfluenced by Store-Advertising!

The store-sales to-day that are uninfluenced, directly or indirectly, by store-Advertising will not have amounted to ten per cent. of the total business of the day. By the direct influence of advertising is meant the sales of articles specifically advertised. By the indirect influence of advertising is meant the articles sold that are not specifically advertised, but are displayed to the customers who are drawn to the store by THE ADVERTISED ARTICLES. In the latter case, as surely as in the first, the advertising must be credited with the sale.

Observant merchants know that this is true. They should gain courage from the knowledge that their store-hopes and plans are placed to the point of matching their store-hopes and plans.

Court Holds Negro Unequal to White Man In Amount of Damages

New York, May 22.—A negro's humiliation following his arrest is not as great as a white man's and the damages he is entitled to for false arrest should not be put at as high a figure as a white man's, according to Justice Dugro. The Justice's opinion is filed in the case of George W. Griffin, a negro porter on a Pullman car, against Daniel M. Brady, and by a vote of three to two the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court yesterday approved the trial Justice's conclusions.

Griffin said in his complaint that on Jan. 25, 1906, at Montreal, Can., Brady, who is a brother of "Diamond Jim" Brady, President of the Pullman Car Company, maliciously caused his arrest on the charge of having stolen a card case containing $20, several railroad passes and a brief case, but that next day when the case was investigated by a Magistrate, he was discharged. Thereupon he brought suit against Brady for $10,000.

The jury awarded Griffin $2,500, whereupon Justice Dugro told Griffin's lawyers that he would set the verdict aside unless the plaintiff consented to a reduction of the amount of damages to $300. When the negro's counsel refused, Justice Dugro replied that no such verdict would ever stand in any court for the plaintiff.

TAFT FAVORS PENSIONS

Washington, May 22.—To a committee of the United States Civil Service Retirement Association, which called upon him yesterday to enlist his interest in some plan for taking care of superannuated employees of the Government, President Taft declared that he was in hearty sympathy with any project that could be devised.

JUROR WHITE HOPELESS MANIAC

(Special from United States.) Boston, May 22.—Hopes of his attorneys that Chester A. Jordan will get a new trial for the murder of his wife were strong to-day following statements by Worcester insane asylum authorities that Willis White, the juror who showed signs of insanity shortly after the verdict of guilty was rendered, is a hopeless maniac. The statement is concurred in by Dr. Frank Ritch of Maynard, White's family doctor.

White is violent at times, the hospital attendants say, and is then confined in a padded cell. Two experts are expected to visit the Worcester asylum within a few days to make an examination of the former juror and they will report to District Attorney Higgins.
